Lions in Action

Rome Lions Sponsor Honduran Vision Mission

For Rome, Georgia, Lions, vision isn't a gift--it's a right. That's why club members decided to sponsor an eye surgery mission to Honduras that helped save the vision of 110 Hondurans suffering from vision impairments.

The club arranged for the donation of surgical equipment from medical equipment providers Alcon, Advanced Medical Optics and Piedmont Hospital of Atlanta as part of its support for the mission, which featured Georgia ophthalmologist Dr. Alan Kozarsky leading a team of vision experts that included Dr. Phil Hoopes, Dr. Cameron Griffith, Dr. Stephen Wils, Dr. Robert Burton and Dr. Carlos Gonzalez. Lions Kyle Coffey, Greg Mayo and Lee Anne Swift also attended.

Patients who received much-needed help included a four year old girl who received a cornea transplant and a 97 year-old man who had been blinded by cataracts for 10 years. Club members also presented 1,000 pairs of refurbished eye glasses to the Honduran Lions Clubs of Puerto Cortes and Choloma for distribution to those in need.

Bristol Lions Hold Florida House Party

When storms in Bristol, Florida severely damaged the roof of a visually impaired couple's roof, local Lions reached for tools instead of buckets.

Bristol Lions partnered up with Proctor's Construction, Liberty Wilderness Kids Camp, the District 35F disaster chairman and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints to replace approximately 700 square feet of roof. The work was a comprehensive replacement, with workers installing new decking, paper and shingles.

Lions Vision Screening Goes Statewide

Much has happened in the six years since Lions clubs in Sussex County, Delaware, began administering a free amblyopia vision screening program to preschool and kindergarten children in the Indian River District elementary school.

The program was so successful in Sussex that the program has been duplicated in Kent and New Castle counties, and Delaware Lions are taking the program statewide. They hope to screen over 5,000 youngsters annually.

Lions Spruce up Enid Park

Spring welcomes nature's seasonal rebirth, but it also welcomes a host of Lions from Enid, Oklahoma, and surrounding areas to conduct an annual spring cleaning at one of the towns recreational parks. About 30 Lions and members of the local Lutheran church pitched in to keep

Lions Club Park looking good for the season, raking up debris, planting four eight-foot trees, painting park equipment, the baseball backstop and picnic tables, and fixing the park's swing set.
